Catalogue description

Freud (Sigmund, 1856-1939). Austrian neurologist and founder of psychoanalysis. Autograph Letter Signed, 'Sigm. Freud', 20 Maresfield Gardens, London, NW3, 4 October 1938, in blue ink on a personalised notepad, thanking the unknown recipient 'so much for your kind wishes. I am recovering slowly', a little dust-soiled, verso blank, 90 x 135 mm

(Quantity: 1)

Freud arrived in London in June 1938 and after spending a short period in a flat at 39 Elsworthy Road in Primrose Hill (this address struck through on the notepad), he and his family moved in September to 20 Maresfield Gardens in Hampstead. He was to die of cancer the following September and the house is now the home of the Freud Museum.
