

J. H. BATEBY
1921

PSYCHO-ANALYSIS,
THE SWEET EXPERIENCE OF GIVE — AND TAKE.

Bonhams, London, 9 November 2004, lot 191, £2,629 (including premium)

Catalogue description

Watercolour, titled 'Psycho Analysis. The Sweet Experience of Give - and Take', signed and dated 'H.M. Bateman 1922' l.r., 30.5 x 21.5 cm. (12 x 8 1/2 in.)

Henry Mayo Bateman (1887-1970), a British artist and professional cartoonist, see also www.hmbateman.com/

Historiesofpsychoanalysis.com notes: The Bateman cartoon was printed in black and white on A4 sized paper subsequently, though where or exactly when it was published is currently unclear. The black and white version reproduced below has a '4' (or perhaps '43') printed on the bottom right-hand corner. In November and December 1924 The Sporting Gallery, in King Street, Covent Garden, had an exhibition of Bateman's works, showing 82 of his cartoons (Daily News [London], 22 November 1924, p. 8)

PSYCHO-ANALYSIS
THE SWEET EXPERIENCE OF GIVE—AND TAKE !